WINE ADVOCATE

"This is another in the line of wines created to honor the important women in the Frank universe. This kitchen-sink blend is intriguing, to say the least. It has a medley of flavors from herbs to plums, mostly leaning to darker fruits. The acidity creates a juicy finish. The structure is excellent, the concentration good. It has the depth and power to age beautifully. You could drink it now if you wanted to, but I'd say this needs a couple of years of cellaring. I won't be surprised if it holds 15+ years - and it might improve notably in time as well. Let's be a little conservative on this new bottling, but the future looks bright."
